

Please do not override our state's telephone privacy act. We requested this privacy for a reason--because we don't want to receive the calls that we were receiving previously. We are enjoying the privacy that this has given us. It is our home, after all, and I feel we should have that right.